

Customer Advisory

Goods & Service Tax

Dear Valued Customers,

You are aware that India have seen a major change in Indirect Tax regime whereby Goods & Service Tax ('GST' hereafter) was introduced with effect from 01-Jul-2017 replacing Service tax, Excise duty, VAT and some other indirect taxes levied by Central & State Government.

As per under the GST rules & regulations, the GST tax are levied basis the address of the recipient of the services. Accordingly, it is utmost important to mention the registered address of the customer for charging the GST in invoice.

In order to fulfil the requirement of GST, Customers who are having multiple locations, will have to open a separate customer code with the Terminal for each GST number.

You are requested to inform the same customer code to the Shipping Lines to nominate the same in IAL (Import Advance List) accordingly.

We look forward to your continuous support.

Best Regards,
